Derek Marler

INTERFACE DESIGNER

| EXPERIENCE

Designer

Guidebook (2013 - 2015)

Helped build out the web version of the app. Provided design and code for multiple promotional pages. Lead the highly successful redesign of the guide management tool (Gears). Created mocks for new mobile features, such as chat.
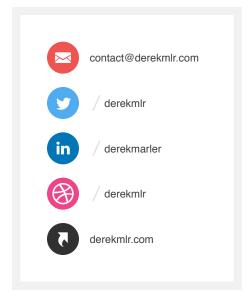

Product Designer

WePay (2011 - 2013)

Took ownership and lead over several projects. Aided the engineering team in troubleshooting CSS problems during implementation reviews. Committed code to our code base for weekly releases via SVN.

UI Designer

Bebo (2010 - 2011)

From promotional content to a design refresh, I not only designed the components and user flows but also provided code to help engineers implement them for the service's 10 million active monthly users to enjoy.

" Derek was a pleasure to work with. During his time at Somo Enterprises (aka Friend.ly), he was passionate, detail-oriented, and got along great with everyone else on our team.

Ed Baker
Head of Growth @ Uber

" Derek is a terrific designer who can design great looking websites, along with having amazing CSS/HTML […] I enjoyed working with Derek and would recommend him as a top UI/visual designer.

Akash Garg
Dir. of Engineering, Mobile @ Uber

" A hard worker and excellent illustrator. He made great strides as a designer since joining WePay. It was a pleasure collaborating with Derek on the projects our team was tasked with.
